MOLINE

Building New Bridge.—Under direction of G. W. Whitney, assistant superintendent of construction, a force of 25 laborers is now building concrete piers that will support the 196-foot bridge the Tri-City Railway company is building over the deep ravine west of Second street on the Elm street car line. The work has been under way for the last week and the concrete men expect to spend two more weeks at the task in outlay of approximately $150,000.

Celebrate Anniversary.—Twenty-one years ago the Second Methodist church of Moline was established, and Tuesday evening the membership fittingly celebrated this event. The celebration took the form of a banquet at the Glenn & Trevor hall and covers were laid for 175 guests. In honor of the occasion the hall was prettily decorated with flags and bunting and garden flowers decorated the tables on which a delicious repast was served.

Bishop in Moline.—Bishop Joseph Hartzell, one of Moline's boys who has gained international fame, spent today in Moline, the occasion of his visit being a reunion with his five sisters. The five sisters are Mesdames Stena Hartzell Wallace and L. Eva Hays of Kansas City, Kan., Mesdames Margaret Holt and L. L. McCoy of this city and Mrs. Lillie Drury of Hampton.

To Have Complexion That Men Admire

"A man may admit, with great sophistication, that powder and rouge are necessary aids to beauty," writes the Countess of Wenlock, "yet deep in his heart he dreams of the woman whose loveliness needs no artificial touching up. Women who appreciate this, who give consideration to the masculine viewpoint, avoid using anything that might indicate their beauty is not all their own."

"Such women in increasing number are acquiring the mercerized wax habit. By applying the wax at night as they would cold cream, washing it off in the morning, they secure and maintain, entirely natural complexions. Their faces exhibit no evidence of having been 'beautified.' Nothing is added to the old complexion—the latter, instead, is discarded. Mercerized wax, procurable at any drug store, absorbs the devitalized outer skin, gradually, almost imperceptibly. The fresh, clear, satiny underskin which appears, bears a healthy, youthful bloom not comparable with the fixed artificial color."

Pains All Over!

"You are welcome," says Mrs. Nora Guffey, of Broken Arrow, Okla., "to use my letter in any way you want to, if it will induce some suffering woman to try Cardui. I had pains all over, and suffered with an abscess. Three physicians failed to relieve me. Since taking Cardui, I am in better health than ever before, and that means much to me, because I suffered many years with womanly troubles, of different kinds. What other treatments I tried, helped me for a few days only."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Don't wait, until you are taken down sick, before taking care of yourself. The small aches and pains, and other symptoms of womanly weakness and disease, always mean worse to follow, unless given quick treatment.

You would always keep Cardui handy, if you knew what quick and permanent relief it gives, where weakness and disease of the womanly system makes life seem hard to bear. Cardui has helped over a million women. Try it.

FACTS OR COINCIDENCES? WHICH ARE THEY THAT THREATEN TO SEND YOUNG CAMBRIDGE, MASS., MINISTER TO ELECTRIC CHAIR?

Violet Edmonds

Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson

Avis Linne

Deputy superintendent Watts, of the Boston police, thinks he has uncovered a complete chain of circumstantial evidence about Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson, the Baptist minister of Cambridge, locked up in the Boston jail, charged with having poisoned little Avis Linnell, who, it is charged, had been his fiancée until he fell in love with the rich Violet Edmonds. The prosecution alleges Richeson, after buying the cyanide of potassium at a Newton Center drugstore, met Miss Linnell on the Saturday afternoon of her death, gave her the poison, which she believed to be medicine, and which she took that evening in a bathroom of the Y. W. C. A., where she was found dead.

fall of that date, which it was alleged in the claims amounted to hundreds of dollars, was accepted by the council for future consideration.

Is Confessed Thief.—Leroy Grover, a young man 18 years of age, yesterday afternoon confessed to the police of robbing Frank Fenton of $11 at the latter's room on East Third street. The young man is watched closely by the police because of the fact that Fenton is now at the county hospital thought to be suffering from an acute attack of typhoid fever. According to the story of the robbery told by the police Grover entered Fenton's room while the latter was out Tuesday afternoon and stole the money. He then turned part of it over to his sweetheart, with whom it is said he intended to soon start out with a vaudeville sketch. Six dollars of the stolen money has been recovered by the police, but only 30 cents was on Grover when arrested.
